

The Department organised a Seminar on 4-2-2019

Topic: Is the Current Development Sustainable?

Resource Person: Gundimeda. Hari Priya,
Professor, Humanities and Social Sciences, IIT, Mumbai

Prof. G.HariPriya, Alumnus of the college, explained the importance of studying Mathematics and how Mathematical modelling helps in observing the Human, Economic and Social growth rate. She also focused on various applications of Mathematics and Statistics in Economics. About 200 students were benefited through this programme. Prof. HariPriya also guided the students on how to apply and pursue higher education in the best universities of India.

Prof. HariPriya at the Seminar

