

MATHEMATICS INFRASTRUCTURE

The Department has a computer system with high speed internet connection, a Laptop and a Printer. Besides the general library, students are exposed to the department library which provides immediate access to the necessary books. This enhances reading habit in the students. Apart from the syllabus, many general Mathematics books are also available for the ready reference of both staff and students. The Department has exhibits like Math Models and Charts for easy understanding of various concepts in Mathematics.

