National Constitutional Day

On the occasion of "Constitution Day of India" the father of the constitution Dr.B.R.Ambedkar was paid gratitude for creating social justice through his constitution. And the Director and the principal of the institution addressed the students abut the importance of the constitution. And also told that as a responsible citizen it is our responsibility to abide by the rules of the constitution.